

Enterprise Resource Management

The ERM service is ideal for companies looking for cost effective and yet customizable solution. The application covers a wide scope of functionalities which include corporate administration, human resource, product management and financial management.

Please email to support@neuis.com to know more about the service.